NORTH IDAHO'S CENTENNIAL THE NATIONAL TRUST FOR HISTORIC PRESERVATION

Historic preservation is more than museums — because history is more than museum pieces. History is all around us, in the buildings and neighborhoods where we work and live. By saving what we can from the past, we give our surroundings a richer diversity. We give ourselves and our children a sense of where we are and where we came from. If we continue to demolish history and to build over it, we lose a quality from our daily lives that we never put back. We lose the past. We lose the sense of being at home in America. By respecting and restoring the architectural integrity of buildings and neighborhoods from past eras, we maintain the unique character of the places where we live our lives. By enhancing our sense of history we enrich the present.

"March comes in like a lion, and goes out like a lamb," is an old proverb with reference to winter ending and spring beginning. March is also the time of year when animals start to wake up from hibernation. Spring is here falling on the 19th and St. Patrick's Day is celebrated on the 17th.

Aquamarine and Bloodstone are the birthstones and both stand for courage. The Daffodil is March's honored flower and Victorians regarded it as a symbol of truthfulness, the quality of mercy and abiding love. March begins with the Zodiac sign of Pisces (3/1-20) and ends with Aries (3/21-31).

Mark your calendars and watch for our updates ... we will re-open for our summer tours beginning June 6 thru the summer months on Saturday's and Sunday's from 12 pm to 4pm.
